

Grade 5-6 Home Learning

Book Activities

- Read a book and complete a book review (as many books as you can)
- Make a list of unknown or extra-cool words and research their meaning
- Complete a character description of every character in each book that you read
- Eggspress <https://readingeggspres.com.au/>
username: _____ & Password _____

Writing

- Creative writing (write a fictional story)
- Write a book review
- Keep a journal every day showing your activities
- Complete\Make a wordsearch
- Lexia Username _____ &
Password _____
- Go to www.pobble365.com – lots of picture stimuli and when you scroll down lots of great writing ideas
- Write a persuasive text using the following prompts:
 1. Children should/should not stay home at this time
 2. Children should/should not be allowed mobile phone in school
 3. Children should/should not wear school uniform
 4. The Government should/should not close the borders

Maths

- Matific login username _____ & password _____
- Visit mathsisfun.com
- Practice division, addition, subtraction and multiplication activities
- Create a home budget

HASS

- Make a timeline of the history of Australia
- Identify and describe significant landmarks in Australia, New Zealand, Asian countries
- Research and list 6 different ways that:
 - White invasion impacted on aboriginals in Tasmania
 - Colonisation impacted on the environment in Tasmania
- List 6 different natural resources that the settlers were looking for to establish settlements in Tasmania.
-

Science

- Complete Inquiry projects on animal adaptations
- Experiment: Find a non-galvanized nail, a galvanised nail, a coin and a spoon. Leave them in water for 3 days and record what happens to each. Write up a science report with the findings.

Art

- Draw yourself by looking in a mirror and copying what you see. See if you can improve it by doing it again.
 - Google 'Austins Butterfly' to remind yourself how to improve and get better at drawing
 - Watch some videos on sketching.

If you have access to the internet, check your emails and OneNote (Office365) for current classroom projects and tasks.